

Sustaining Memberships for 2018

The San Francisco Paralegal Association is organized under the Nonprofit Corporation Law of California for public purposes. The Association's goal is to represent and promote the paralegal profession and enable paralegals and legal support professionals to enhance their career development.

Join Alliant International University, California State University East Bay, City College of San Francisco, First Legal Network, Gwilliam Ivory Chiosso Cavalli & Brewer, Lexis Nexis, Litigation Services, One Legal, Planet Depos, and RGL Forensics as sustaining members and supporters of the San Francisco Paralegal Association for 2018.

With a fast-growing membership of paralegals, legal secretaries and law office professionals, a sustaining membership will increase your company's name recognition and help you in promoting your products and services to those who will use them the most.

At only a cost of $300.00, a sustaining membership subscription includes:

- Sponsorship appreciation on the association website
- Access to the association membership role
- E-mail "blasts" of association news
- Free job postings on the association website
- Notification of all upcoming association events
- Opportunity to sponsor or co-sponsor the Association's bi-yearly meetings or quarterly social events
- Opportunity to provide your corporate representatives as CLE speakers for practice section gatherings or the Association's bi-yearly meetings

Register for your sustaining membership online at www.sfpa.com/join

The SFPA thanks you for your support and looks forward to working with you in 2018!
